

Mince Pie Morning

Tis the season...to eat mince pies!

Throughout December, get in the festive spirit by holding a Mince Pie Morning for Headway Birmingham & Solihull!

How to get involved

It would be amazing if you would join our Mince Pie Morning and raise a pound or two towards our local brain injury services!

You could:

- Get together with colleagues for an office meeting, supply some mince pies and ask for a donation from each participant.
- Host a mince pie coffee morning with friends and family at home and ask for a donation from each participant.
- Bake your own mince pies and sell them for a donation.

Simply email fundraising@headway-bs.org.uk for your Mine Pie Morning fundraising pack.

Every mince pie eaten and every donation made equals more funding towards our vital support for those affected by brain injury.

Whether you're an individual or an organisation, we encourage you to use your mince pie morning to highlight the subject of brain injury by sharing your support, your lived experience, and your fundraising events and activities across email and social media.
